HOUSE BILL No. 2071

DIGEST OF HB2071 (Updated February 25, 1999 4:39 pm - DI 84)

Citations Affected: Noncode.

Synopsis: Marion County public safety consolidation. Requires a referendum allowing voters of Indianapolis to: (1) consolidate the Indianapolis police department with the Marion County sheriff's department and establish the Marion County sheriff as the exclusive law enforcement authority for the county and the city; and (2) consolidate fire protection service into the Marion County fire department under the control of the Marion County fire commission. Provides that if the law enforcement referendum question passes, the Marion County sheriff is the exclusive police force of the county and the city. Provides that if the fire protection referendum passes, the fire departments of the city and the townships within the county are eliminated and fire protection authority is consolidated with the Marion County fire department. Allows Speedway, Lawrence, Southport, and Beech Grove to opt into: (1) the Marion County law enforcement (Continued next page)

Effective: July 1, 1999.

the Marion County Fire Commissioner?".

(c) The county election board shall tabulate the votes cast on the public questions described in this SECTION and certify the results under IC 3-12-4-9 to the state election commission.

(d) Subject to this SECTION, IC 3-10-3 and IC 3-10-8 apply to the election required by this SECTION.

SECTION 2. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1999] (a) This SECTION applies only to a county having a consolidated city on July 1, 1999.

(b) If the county election board certifies to the state election commission that a majority of the voters voting in the November 2, 1999, special election voted in favor of the public question in SECTION 1(b)(1) of this act, concerning Marion county law enforcement consolidation, this SECTION applies.

(c) Before December 31, 2001, the county must consolidate the police department of the consolidated city with the county sheriff's department under the control and authority of the county sheriff.

(d) On January 1, 2002, the law enforcement authority for the police department of the consolidated city is revoked, and the county sheriff's department is the exclusive law enforcement agency for the county and the consolidated city.

(e) Before January 1, 2002, the county sheriff shall employ every officer who is serving as a member of the police department of the consolidated city on December 31, 2001, as a member of the county sheriff's department.

(f) A member of the police department who becomes a member of the sheriff's department on January 1, 2002, as a result of this act, shall be given rank and seniority equivalent to the rank and seniority held in the police department the member was serving in on December 31, 2001.

(g) If, before January 1, 2002:

(1) an agreement entered into with the police department of the consolidated city; or

(2) a judgment entered against the police department of the consolidated city;

requires the police department of the consolidated city to make payments after December 31, 2001, the holders of the obligations are entitled to payment from the county sheriff's department after December 31, 2001. The city-county council shall make any necessary additional appropriation for the county sheriff's department to fulfill the obligation.

(h) All buildings, facilities, and other real, personal, and mixed property owned by the police department of the consolidated city on December 31, 2001, become the property of the county sheriff's department on January 1, 2002, and no compensation is payable by the county sheriff's department to the municipality for the buildings, facilities, and other real, personal, and mixed property.

(i) All:

(1) pension and retirement plans and funds; and

(2) laws relating to pension and retirement plans and funds; in effect for an officer of the police department of the consolidated city on December 31, 2001, continue in full force and effect without change. No rights of any person covered by a pension described in this SECTION are affected or diminished in any way by this act.

(j) An officer who becomes a member of the county sheriff's department as a result of this act may convert the member's benefits to the sheriff's pension not later than July 1, 2002.

(k) The legislative services agency shall prepare legislation for introduction in the 2002 session of the general assembly to:

(1) eliminate any references providing authority for the establishment of a police force, other than the county sheriff, of the consolidated city;

(2) resolve any conflicts created by this act; and

(3) correct any other typographical, clerical, or spelling errors in the law resulting from the enactment of this SECTION.

SECTION 3. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1999] (a) This SECTION applies only to a county having a consolidated city on July 1, 1999.

(b) If the county election board certifies to the state election commission that a majority of the voters voting in the November 2, 1999, special election voted in favor of the public question in SECTION 1(b)(2) of this act, concerning Marion County fire protection consolidation, this SECTION applies.

(c) The county fire commission is established.

(d) The county fire commission consists of:

(1) one (1) member appointed by the executive of the consolidated city; and

(2) one (1) member appointed by the township trustee and township advisory board of each township in the county.

A person appointed as a member of the county fire commission serves a term of four (4) years. A member is eligible to serve on the county fire commission not more than eight (8) years in any twelve (12) year period.

(e) The county fire commission shall meet not later than January 1, 2002, and shall select a county fire commissioner to manage the operations of the county fire department. The county

1 fire commissioner is an employee of the county and shall serve at 2 the pleasure of the fire commission.

3 (f) Before December 31, 2002, the county must consolidate the 4 fire departments of the consolidated city and the townships within 5 the county under the Marion County fire department.

6 (g) Except in an excluded city, on January 1, 2003, the fire
7 protection authority for the fire departments of the:

8 (1) consolidated city; and

9 (2) townships within a county that contains a consolidated
10 city;

11 is revoked, and the county fire department is the exclusive fire
12 protection agency within the county.

13 (h) Before January 1, 2003, the fire commissioner shall employ
14 every officer who is serving on December 31, 2002, as a member of 15 a fire department of:

16 (1) the consolidated city; and

17 (2) a township within the county that contains the 18 consolidated city.

19 (i) A member of a fire department who becomes a member of 20 the county fire department on January 1, 2003, as a result of this
21 act, shall be given rank and seniority equivalent to the rank and
22 seniority held in the fire department of which the person was a
23 member on December 31, 2002.

24 (j) If, before January 1, 2002:

25 (1) an agreement entered into with the fire department of:

26 (A) the consolidated city; or

27 (B) a township within the county;

28 (2) a judgment entered against the fire department of:

29 (A) the consolidated city; or

30 (B) a township within the county;

31 requires the fire department to make payments after December 31,
32 2002, the holders of the obligations are entitled to payment from 33 the county fire department after December 31, 2002. The 34 city-county council shall make any necessary additional 35 appropriations for the county fire department to fulfill the
36 obligation.

37 (k) All buildings, facilities, and other real, personal, and mixed 38 property owned by a fire department of:

39 (1) the consolidated city; or

40 (2) a township within the county;

41 on December 31, 2002, become the property of the county fire
42 department on January 1, 2003, and no compensation is payable by the county fire department for the buildings, facilities, and other real, personal, and mixed property.

(l) All:

(1) pension and retirement plans and funds; and

(2) laws relating to pension and retirement plans and funds; in effect for a member of a fire department of the consolidated city and a township within the county, on December 31, 2002, continue in full force and effect without change. No rights of any person covered by a pension described in this SECTION are affected or diminished in any way by this act.

(m) The legislative services agency shall prepare legislation for introduction in the 2003 session of the general assembly to:

(1) codify the authority of the Marion County fire department and the Marion County fire commission;

(2) eliminate any references providing authority for the establishment of a fire department, other than the county fire department, of the consolidated city or a township within the county;

(3) resolve any conflicts created by this SECTION; and

(4) correct any other typographical, clerical, or spelling errors in the law resulting from the enactment of this act.

SECTION 4. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1999] (a) This SECTION applies only to a county having a consolidated city on July 1, 1999.

(b) If the following occur, this SECTION applies to an excluded city referenced in IC 36-3-1-7:

(1) The county election board certifies to the state election commission that a majority of the voters voting in the November 2, 1999, special election voted in favor of the public question in SECTION 1(b)(1) of this act, concerning Marion county law enforcement consolidation.

(2) The legislative body of an excluded city adopts a resolution to opt into the law enforcement consolidation before December 31, 2001, and the excluded city transmits a copy of the resolution to the county recorder on or before December 31, 2001.

(c) As used in this SECTION, "excluded city" means an excluded city that has adopted a resolution to opt into the Marion county law enforcement consolidation.

(d) Before December 31, 2001, the county must consolidate the police department of the excluded city with the county sheriff's department under the control and authority of the county sheriff.

(e) On January 1, 2002, the law enforcement authority for the

1 police department of the excluded city is revoked, and the county
2 sheriff's department is the exclusive law enforcement agency for 3 the county and the excluded city.

4 (f) Before January 1, 2002, the county sheriff shall employ every 5 officer who is serving as a member of the police department of the 6 excluded city on December 31, 2001, as a member of the county
7 sheriff's department.

8 (g) A member of the police department who becomes a member
9 of the sheriff's department on January 1, 2002, as a result of this
10 act shall be given rank and seniority equivalent to the rank and 11 seniority held in the police department that the member was 12 serving in on December 31, 2001.

13 (h) If, before January 1, 2002:

14 (1) an agreement entered into with the police department of 15 the excluded city; or

16 (2) a judgment entered against the police department of the 17 excluded city;

18 requires the police department of the excluded city to make
19 payments after December 31, 2001, the holders of the obligations
20 are entitled to payment from the county sheriff's department after 21 December 31, 2001. The city-county council shall make any 22 necessary additional appropriation for the county sheriff's 23 department to fulfill the obligation.

24 (i) All buildings, facilities, and other real, personal, and mixed
25 property owned by the police department of the excluded city on 26 December 31, 2001, become the property of the county sheriff's 27 department on January 1, 2002, and no compensation is payable by 28 the county sheriff's department to the municipality for the 29 buildings, facilities, and other real, personal, and mixed property.

30 (j) All:

31 (1) pension and retirement plans and funds; and

32 (2) laws relating to pension and retirement plans and funds;
33 in effect for an officer of the police department of the excluded city
34 on December 31, 2001, continue in full force and effect without 35 change. No rights or any person covered by a pension described in 36 this SECTION are affected or diminished in any way by this act.

37 (k) An officer who becomes a member of the county sheriff's 38 department as a result of this act may convert the member's
39 benefits to the sheriff's pension not later than July 1, 2002.

40 (l) The legislative services agency shall prepare legislation for 41 introduction in the 2002 session of the general assembly to:

42 (1) eliminate any references providing authority for the

1 establishment of a police force, other than the county sheriff,
2 in the excluded city;

3 (2) resolve any conflicts created by this act; and

4 (3) correct any other typographical, clerical, or spelling errors
5 in the law resulting from the enactment of this SECTION.

6 SECTION 5. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1999] (a) This SECTION
7 applies only to a county having a consolidated city on July 1, 1999.

8 (b) If the following occur, this SECTION applies to an excluded
9 city referenced in IC 36-3-1-7:

10 (1) The county election board certifies to the state election
11 commission that a majority of the voters voting in the 12 November 2, 1999, special election voted in favor of the public
13 question in SECTION 1(b)(2) of this act concerning Marion
14 County fire protection consolidation.

15 (2) The legislative body of an excluded city adopts a resolution
16 to opt into the fire protection consolidation before December 17 31, 2001, and the excluded city transmits a copy of the 18 resolution to the county recorder on or before December 31,
19 2001.

20 (c) As used in this SECTION, "excluded city" means an 21 excluded city that has adopted a resolution to opt into the Marion
22 County fire protection consolidation.

23 (d) The Marion County fire commission is expanded to include
24 one (1) member appointed by the executive of the excluded city.

25 (e) Before December 31, 2002, the county must consolidate the 26 fire department of the excluded city under the Marion County fire
27 department.

28 (f) On January 1, 2003, the fire protection authority for the fire
29 department of the excluded city is revoked, and the county fire
30 department is the exclusive fire protection agency within the 31 excluded city.

32 (g) Before January 1, 2003, the fire commissioner shall employ
33 every officer who is serving on December 31, 2002, as a member of 34 a fire department of the excluded city.

35 (h) A member of a fire department who becomes a member of
36 the county fire department on January 1, 2003, as a result of this
37 act, shall be given rank and seniority equivalent to the rank and
38 seniority held in the fire department of which the person was a
39 member on December 31, 2002.

40 (i) If, before January 1, 2002:

41 (1) an agreement entered into with the fire department of the 42 excluded city; or

1           (2) a judgment entered against the fire department of the
2           excluded city;
3           requires the fire department to make payments after December 31,
4           2002, the holders of the obligations are entitled to payment from
5           the county fire department after December 31, 2002. The
6           city-county council shall make any necessary additional
7           appropriations for the county fire department to fulfill the
8           obligation.

9           (j) All buildings, facilities, and other real, personal, and mixed
10          property owned on December 31, 2002, by a fire department of the 11          excluded city, become the property of the county fire department
12          on January 1, 2003, and no compensation is payable by the county
13          fire department for the buildings, facilities, and other real,
14          personal, and mixed property.

15          (k) All:

16           (1) pension and retirement plans and funds; and

17           (2) laws relating to pension and retirement plans and funds;
18          in effect on December 31, 2002, for a member of a fire department
19          of the excluded city, continue in full force and effect without 20          change. No rights of any person covered by a pension described in 21          this SECTION are affected or diminished in any way by this act.

22          (l) The legislative services agency shall prepare legislation for
23          introduction in the 2003 session of the general assembly to:

24           (1) codify the authority of the Marion County fire department
25           and the Marion County fire commission;

26           (2) eliminate any references providing authority for the 27           establishment of a fire department, other than the county fire
28           department, of the excluded city;

29           (3) resolve any conflicts created by this SECTION; and

30           (4) correct any other typographical, clerical, or spelling errors
31          in the law resulting from the enactment of this act.

(1) The county election board certifies to the state election commission that a majority of the voters voting in the November 2, 1999, special election voted in favor of the public question in SECTION 1(b)(1) of this act, concerning Marion county law enforcement consolidation.
(2) The legislative body of an excluded city adopts a resolution to opt into the law enforcement consolidation before December 31, 2001, and the excluded city transmits a copy of the resolution to the county recorder on or before December 31, 2001.
(c) As used in this SECTION, "excluded city" means an excluded city that has adopted a resolution to opt into the Marion county law enforcement consolidation.

(d) Before December 31, 2001, the county must consolidate the police department of the excluded city with the county sheriff's department under the control and authority of the county sheriff.

(e) On January 1, 2002, the law enforcement authority for the police department of the excluded city is revoked, and the county sheriff's department is the exclusive law enforcement agency for the county and the excluded city.

(f) Before January 1, 2002, the county sheriff shall employ every officer who is serving as a member of the police department of the excluded city on December 31, 2001, as a member of the county sheriff's department.

(g) A member of the police department who becomes a member of the sheriff's department on January 1, 2002, as a result of this act shall be given rank and seniority equivalent to the rank and seniority held in the police department that the member was serving in on December 31, 2001.

(h) If, before January 1, 2002:

- (1) an agreement entered into with the police department of the excluded city; or
- (2) a judgment entered against the police department of the excluded city; requires the police department of the excluded city to make payments after December 31, 2001, the holders of the obligations are entitled to payment from the county sheriff's department after December 31, 2001. The city-county council shall make any necessary additional appropriation for the county sheriff's department to fulfill the obligation.

(i) All buildings, facilities, and other real, personal, and mixed property owned by the police department of the excluded city on December 31, 2001, become the property of the county sheriff's department on January 1, 2002, and no compensation is payable by the county sheriff's department to the municipality for the buildings, facilities, and other real, personal, and mixed property.

benefits to the sheriff's pension not later than July 1, 2002.

(l) The legislative services agency shall prepare legislation for introduction in the 2002 session of the general assembly to:

- (1) eliminate any references providing authority for the establishment of a police force, other than the county sheriff, in the excluded city;
- (2) resolve any conflicts created by this act; and
- (3) correct any other typographical, clerical, or spelling errors in the law resulting from the enactment of this SECTION.

SECTION 5. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 1999] (a) This SECTION applies only to a county having a consolidated city on July 1, 1999.

(b) If the following occur, this SECTION applies to an excluded city referenced in IC 36-3-1-7:

- (1) The county election board certifies to the state election commission that a majority of the voters voting in the November 2, 1999, special election voted in favor of the public question in SECTION 1(b)(2) of this act concerning Marion County fire protection consolidation.
- (2) The legislative body of an excluded city adopts a resolution to opt into the fire protection consolidation before December 31, 2001, and the excluded city transmits a copy of the resolution to the county recorder on or before December 31, 2001.

(c) As used in this SECTION, "excluded city" means an excluded city that has adopted a resolution to opt into the Marion County fire protection consolidation.

(d) The Marion County fire commission is expanded to include one (1) member appointed by the executive of the excluded city.

(e) Before December 31, 2002, the county must consolidate the fire department of the excluded city under the Marion County fire department.

(f) On January 1, 2003, the fire protection authority for the fire department of the excluded city is revoked, and the county fire department is the exclusive fire protection agency within the excluded city.

(g) Before January 1, 2003, the fire commissioner shall employ every officer who is serving on December 31, 2002, as a member of a fire department of the excluded city.

(h) A member of a fire department who becomes a member of the county fire department on January 1, 2003, as a result of this act, shall be given rank and seniority equivalent to the rank and seniority held in the fire department of which the person was a member on December 31, 2002.

(i) If, before January 1, 2002:

- (1) an agreement entered into with the fire department of the excluded city; or
- (2) a judgment entered against the fire department of the excluded city; requires the fire department to make payments after December 31, 2002, the holders of the obligations are entitled to payment from the county fire department after December 31, 2002. The city-county council shall make any necessary additional appropriations for the county fire department to fulfill the obligation.

(j) All buildings, facilities, and other real, personal, and mixed property owned on December 31, 2002, by a fire department of the excluded city, become the property of the county fire department on January 1, 2003, and no compensation is payable by the county fire department for the buildings, facilities, and other real, personal, and mixed property.

(k) All:

- (1) pension and retirement plans and funds; and
- (2) laws relating to pension and retirement plans and funds; in effect on December 31, 2002, for a member of a fire department of the excluded city, continue in full force and effect without change. No rights of any person covered by a pension described in this SECTION are affected or diminished in any way by this act.

(l) The legislative services agency shall prepare legislation for introduction in the 2003 session of the general assembly to:

- (1) codify the authority of the Marion County fire department and the Marion County fire commission;
- (2) eliminate any references providing authority for the establishment of a fire department, other than the county fire department, of the excluded city;
- (3) resolve any conflicts created by this SECTION; and
- (4) correct any other typographical, clerical, or spelling errors in the law resulting from the enactment of this act."

Renumber all SECTIONS consecutively.
